To: Prof. Peng Daiyin

Vice-Chairman, Chinese Medicine Association

Vice-Chairman, Pharmacology Association

President, Anhui University of Chinese Medicine

INVITATION

Honorable Prof. Peng Daiyin,

The International Health Tourism Center in collaboration with Athens and Kos municipalities will hold international medical academic forum from 8th to 12th, June, 2019 with the themes of the fertility and the medical health tourism in Greece. There will be the professors of the universities and the presidents of the medical institutes from all over the world participating in this conference. On the panel meetings and conferences various topics of medicine will be discussed.

In order to explore and develop the common research between the traditional Chinese medicine and the Western medicine, I take the honor to invite you to head a delegation to attend our forum and to deliver a speech on the topics of How Chinese Medicine functions in curing fertility problems and keeping fit for people's health, especially how Chinese traditional medicine could help in developing the roaring health tourism. Yours speech will be very much valuable and significant for our forum.

It would be highly appreciated if you could kindly accept my invitation. The agenda of the forum is as follows for your kind reference:
June 8-9, 2019, Athens First Fertility Festival and Forum June10-12, 2019, Kos, Hippocrates's Hometown, Discussion about the International Medical Health Tourism.

I humbly request your attention that because of the tight budget, all the attendees pay for themselves.

Looking forward to welcoming you in Athens!

Sincerely,
